

Madrid Dam Music Series to host 10 concerts for summer of 2017

VARIED SCHEDULE: Country, tribute band, handbell choir on schedule

MADRID — The following concerts are scheduled as part of the 2017 Madrid Dam Music Series. Concerts are held from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesdays.

■ June 28 — Rebecca and Bill, solos and duets of varied covers

■ July 5 — Gretchen Koehler and Don Woodcock, multi-awarded fiddlers

■ July 12 — Bridge the Divide, faith lifting musicians

■ July 19 — Potsdam Community Band, 80 member band

■ July 26 — Steelin' Country, traditional crafted country

music

■ Aug. 2 — Madrid Has Possibilities, an open mic night

■ Aug. 9 — Barb Heller, an evening with music and stories

■ Aug. 16 — Madrid Community Chorus and Noteworthy Hand Bell Choir

■ Aug. 23 — Jack Kelly Little Big Band, veteran's tribute evening

■ Aug. 30 — Tyler Allen and Friends, MWCS selected performer

Performances will be held in the Madrid Community Park or Building. Our second location due to rain and a large expected audience is the St. Lawrence County Power and Equipment Museum. Any location change will be posted on our Facebook page and at the park entrance.

The performances are free to attend with donations very welcome. Food and refreshments will be available for purchase.

MDMS proudly offers no smoking and no alcohol events. More information can be found on our Facebook page or call 315-265-2047.

— Daily Courier Observer —

Here is another for a friend.

Madrid Dam Music Series to host 10 concerts for summer of 2017

VARIED SCHEDULE: Country, tribute band, handbell choir on schedule

MADRID — The following concerts are scheduled as part of the 2017 Madrid Dam Music Series. Concerts are held from 6 to 8 p.m. Wednesdays.

■ June 28 — Rebecca and Bill, solos and duets of varied covers

■ July 5 — Gretchen Koehler and Don Woodcock, multi-awarded fiddlers

■ July 12 — Bridge the Divide, faith lifting musicians

■ July 19 — Potsdam Community Band, 80 member band

■ July 26 — Steelin' Country, traditional crafted country

music

■ Aug. 2 — Madrid Has Possibilities, an open mic night

■ Aug. 9 — Barb Heller, an evening with music and stories

■ Aug. 16 — Madrid Community Chorus and Noteworthy Hand Bell Choir

■ Aug. 23 — Jack Kelly Little Big Band, veteran's tribute evening

■ Aug. 30 — Tyler Allen and Friends, MWCS selected performer

Performances will be held in the Madrid Community Park or Building. Our second location due to rain and a large expected audience is the St. Lawrence County Power and Equipment Museum. Any location change will be posted on our Facebook page and at the park entrance.

The performances are free to attend with donations very welcome. Food and refreshments will be available for purchase.

MDMS proudly offers no smoking and no alcohol events. More information can be found on our Facebook page or call 315-265-2047.